2019 Annual Crime Report

DUTY

INTEGRITY

HONOR

COURAGE

The city of Shreveport recorded the lowest number of Part I crimes in over 44 years during 2019. Crime rates do not drop to historic lows by accident or sheer luck. The hard work of our men and women, coupled with support from numerous law enforcement partners, non-profit organizations, businesses, and dedicated citizens all contributed to this monumental feat. As the year ended on December 31, 2019, we recorded 10,667 total Part I Crimes. One would have to look back to 1975 where the city saw 10,628 Part I crimes to find a lower crime rate.

Our department implemented several operational changes in 2019. Many of the changes were directed at reducing spikes in crimes as they occurred. We put great effort in tracking weekly crime patterns and put additional personnel and resources into those areas where spikes in crime or patterns could be observed. Our Supplemental Patrol Program was further refined to ensure we had more than an adequate number of uniformed police officers patrolling our neighborhoods and being proactive in the prevention of crime. Our officers arrested and summonsed more than 10,000 people in 2019 while responding to more than 200,000 calls for service. We approached 2019 with a clear vision to decrease crime in Shreveport and were successful in our efforts. More work is needed, but the Shreveport Police Department is dedicated to creating a safer, more desirable city for all its citizens and visitors.

As we look to the future of policing, 2020 has already met us head-on, but we will not be defeated. Our police officers, jailers, police communications officers, vehicle technicians, civilian employees, police pastors, and reserve and auxiliary officers all work tirelessly and with great dedication to serve the citizens of Shreveport. Our ability to produce the lowest crime numbers since the mid-1970s is indicative that Shreveport's best years are ahead and public safety is a priority.

Respectfully yours in service,

Ben Raymond
Chief of Police
